Sun Entrance 688 Offertory 88 Communion 674 Recession 568

As always at this time of year, we begin to contemplate the end of the world a theme that carries us over next Sunday's feast (Christ the King) and so into Advent. Such a contemplation is not gloomy or morbid: throughout the ages (and especially in the early days) Christians have been utterly posi-tive about the coming end of all things, because we know what will happen, and in fact we earnestly desire it : the phrase that gives this away is in the Gospel: {Mark 13:24-32} "Then... he will send his angels to gather his chosen from the four winds." This gathering of God's children to-gether will be a truly wonderful event, when we will all be completely enfolded in that love of God that we talk so much about.
